

6516207406.txt

As a consumer who benefits from the services of satellite radio programming, I urge you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160. The free market should decide whether consumers will pay for local programming over the radio.